MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING

SUBJECT: Stanley Sporkin

1. This memorandum will serve to structure the arrangements to be followed in making available Central Intelligence Agency documents to staff members of the Senate Judiciary Committee in connection with the forthcoming Judicial hearings on Mr. Stanley Sporkin. It is understood that these hearings are slated to begin on 21 October 1985.

2. The rules to be followed are as follows:

-The documents will be shown only to Top Secret cleared Judiciary Committee staff members whose "need-to-know" in connection with the Stanley Sporkin hearings is attested to by Mr. R. J. Short, Chief Investigator, Senate Judiciary Committee.

-No documents containing Sensitive Compartmented Information (SCI) and so labeled will be shown to Judiciary Committee staff members.

-All Agency document review activity in connection with the Sporkin hearings will be accomplished in the offices of Mr. R. J. Short.

-All Agency document review activity in connection with the Stanley Sporkin hearings will be accomplished under the eye of Top Secret/SCI escort personnel to be provided by Mr. R. J. Short.

-A log will be maintained by Mr. R. J. Short showing the names of all persons shown the documents plus the dates and times of the exposures.

-There will be no photography nor document reproduction allowed of the Agency documents involved in the Stanley Sporkin hearings.

SUBJECT: Stanley Sporkin

-Each Judiciary Committee staff member shown the Agency classified documents in connection with the Stanley Sporkin hearings will also be shown a copy of this Memorandum of Understanding (MOU); will agree in writing to the terms of this MOU; will agree not to disclose or discuss the contents of the Agency classified (Sporkin) documents with any person other than with a Judiciary Committee Member, Mr. R. J. Short, or another Judiciary Committee staff person who has signed a statement identical to this.

3. After the Stanley Sporkin Judiciary Committee hearings are over or as soon afterwards as practicable, there will be an inventory conducted jointly by Messrs. Short and [redacted] of the Agency documents provided the Judiciary Committee in connection with the Stanley Sporkin hearings. After the inventory, the documents will be returned to the custody of the Central Intelligence Agency.
